I have to say the same thing as afdfg195 on that one- about 5 meds and 2 mammys on the nod entrance, and they dont ove when ur stod behind them screaming ""MOVE OUT!!!"

I think thats what irritates me about lots of people- theyll buy a tank and move to attrack the enemy base, recieve one shot themselves, then blast backwards at full power wailing "I NEED REPAIRS". Sorry but they really annoy me. Just rush ffs!
