this is getting really off topic, and id rather not want this topic locked. if your english is bad, dont complain we hacent given you a tutorial and if you dont have renx, then why the heck are you asking us?

now all you need are some cop cars at the police station that spawrn a neutral cop when you steal one of them...or an a10 if you steal a hummer. too bad you would probably have to do pathfinding. oh well.
