To be honest i had no idea canadaCDN added this gun to the map, and to top it off it was found on Turbosquid.com/or one of those free sites and i am sure of it, so you should go tell them to take it off. The gun will be removed asap if that's the problem, otherwise it was a mistake and we do tend to use things that are downloaded. (were not professionals btw, so we don't create many of our own vehicles/weapons)

So don't jump on others backs just because there was a mistake made.
