I'm not 100% sure what you're referring to. The viewpoint was just from my viewpoint as a player. You tell me, who is maxton? I don't remember any maxton.

dthdealer wrote on Sun, 18 February 2007 01:38edit: one more thing, do you have perm for the advertising?sorry if i am being annoying, but i mean the games in the shops as billboards, eg windos and warcraft?

First of all WinDos is a 100% made up program made for the sole purpose of that billboard. 2nd, what is perm? 3rd, the games in the shops, omg liek we have a picture of the game box. That's not advertising, thats just prop modeling. If you are so concerned about advertising, please also go to the 93198631786231832 other sites that have the same pictures on their websites.
