lol... not a problem... to clarify and make sure I understand this:

When you're on the w2k machine, you can't ping the w3k machine and the w3k machine can't ping back.

When you're using CE, you can ping/see the w2k machine, and it can see/ping you, but you can't ping/see the w3k machine nor can it ping it back?

If you're on the w3k machine... can you ping/see anything?
