Oh yeah...

I went through the xgen forums and found out exactly why you loose units and how to keep them...

You need enough money left over from the previous level to keep the units you train in the current level. If you don't have enough money you lose them.

Like if you're at stage 10, you just spent all of your money. You go to stage 11 and create 10 archers, since you didn't have enough money left over from the previous stage they leave.
