Like I said, the soldier part is the only part that looks like cheating. The part where the sniper isn't facing him could be a few things.. Most likely there was another sniper that shot him, and even if there wasn't it would have to be lag because there's not a cheat that lets you shoot backwards lol.

Ok I'll let you have that one. The map before valcano. (I can't remember it) Right at the end of that this dude does 60 damage with a pistol. Now if you say he hit head then body but its 60 in one go. Look at City flying. The dude clearly doesn't die... Then he HS repeatedly.. Hourglass the 4th time.. The other dude has SBH Hax.
