Quote:I hate renegade now. When I first bought it, it was fun, but then they dropped the price and a buch of loud mouth losers signed up to play. So instead of teamwork and fun games, there was whining. And if someone tried to get a plan together to actually win, there was nothing but "stfu" or "that's what i thought someone with X rank would say. And this message board confirmed it. rather than argue the merits of one game over the other, you'd rather toss around idiot slang like "owned." Owned! Owned! that's a cool word.

Oh and forums, in general, suck too.

From what I can tell from this paragraph, you are not very good at Renegade. Otherwise, you wouldnt complain oabout "ownage" :rolleyes:

So for you to compensate for your sucky playing, you decide to say we are stupid and the forums suck and leave entirely to PlanetSide, where, after your first monthly bills on it, you will decide its not worth paying that much to play such a lame game. Also, if you were any good, from your experience with servers, you would join one where other good players go and n00bs, though many in general, would be more scarce. But really, what makes you think the Planetide forums will be any better? Im sure people there will be saying "i owned u!" and "stfu"...

Please, move on to planetside and stop wasting our time.
