Spoony that you for proving my point, those IP dont match so it wasnt me who logged in at that time. Also, you proved my point further because in the previous SS you were logged into the trooprm02 account, but in that SS, which shows all the IP's used to log into that account yours doesnt show? GG.

And the AR thing, so when he did that he automatically renewed my account? So basically anyone on cw.cc can post wins against players that are inactive or have left just because you guys dont prune accounts? Point Proven? I think so
