yea i wish there was a way to avoid the vehicles from blowing up but i dont think there is at all

Either way it is still pretty cool to use and has some practice uses such as flipping other peoples vehicles back over for them or getting them unstuck, or just being an ass and tossing them around lol.

Anyways , i added some extra details to the fish tank such as swimming pleco fish also , the map is all exported and were just gonna do some tests before anything official.
