For 3 years, I played without cheating, 100% legit, and loved it.

However, Browsing some forums, I came across a few places, in which I found some hacks.

Low and behold it, the greedy side of my took over. And I downloaded them.

Used them in game, and fair enough, got my ass banned off most servers that are respectful.

Now, Im not going to sit here, and cry my way out of being banned of servers, im not going to sit here and ask for forgiveness.

Nor am I going to sit here, telling you it was another person.

It was me, I did it.

I downloaded the hacks, had fun for a few games, and now I'm paying the price for it.

I have reinstalled renegade, clean sheet.

And play on a few servers here and there.

I already know Troop is going to love this, as well as a few others.

Your going to flame me, and im prepared for it.

Let me tell you this though-

I was stupid, greedy, power hungry.

Ive seen the error in my actions, as I too, hated cheaters at one point.

This message, is to all my in-game friends.

When i get off my three-month ban from my clan, your going to see a better player, both in-game, and as a person.

BBF, I apologize for all of this, I take 100% responsibility for it. And to nas, MexPirate, I apologize to you two the most.

Mex, you recommended me here, and out of the goodness of your heart, taught me how to play 1 Vs. 1's better.

Nas, you took me into your clan, as a leader. And showed me what a true clan was all about.

Im going to accept my banning, since I have no choice.

To all the people to renegade forums, I know this doesnt seem like the person i Am, but im paying the price, for three days of fun.

Yes, you can say it.

Im a low-life scummy cheater. I ruined games, made people upset, betrayed my clan, betrayed myself.

Since thats all im here to say, ill leave it at that.

Hate me, or continue to like me for who i am, its your call.

Now then, with that said-
Im waiting for the entire community to flame me.

Most likely the gayest confession I've ever read.
