Here in Belgium, education is (supposed to be?) free until 18 years (and is also obligatory). OK, not 100 % but until 18 years u can do with only paying for your books, school trips, ...

What counts most in the choice for a school here is where it's situated. Ain't gonna drive 50 km if u can do with 10.

All teachers, ... are paid by the state who finances the schools as well (finances them quite badly if u may believe them but still does).

Then again, we also have a social security network, ...

Welcome to Europe . Where taxes on jobs are between 40 and 60 %.
