If you are on the internet you already know most if not all cuss words, so I say FUCK YOU! To any server who kicks for that, I can see if you get out of hand with it but... Come on thats fucking stupid.

We don't like swearing in our server due to the wide age range of people that play in it.
So in your server do you prevent mass murder as well? Are your players not allowed to shoot at each other or blow things up? Do they have to keep that at home as well? To say swearing is bad but violance is ok is fucking retarded.
