I am glad I could help. So, anyone else likes this game as much as I do? I think it is one of the best flash strategy games ever.

Anyway, I have beat the game with the house of snakes(or what is it called) and some levels were pretty hard, specially the one where you don't have SAM sites yet and enemy has planes.

The beginning was hard too, but I finally found out that you need to get oil first, then gold, and then you can attack the rest of the island.
