The USA won't rush in it has been proven in the past that it doesn't work (Guerillia wars) bassicly whats happening in Iraq now. The only thing that thele do is bomb the nuke plants with strategic missiles. And maybe kill that lunatic?. It's not like they would stand a chance in raw firepower anyways.. but the thing is the war is getting bigger by then and who knows where it ends.
(If they dont destroy the plants -> its still going the same way I think.
