Reminds me of the GLA mission briefings in Generals and Zero Hour.

Tbh a conflict between Iran and "the West" (I mean the USA, the UK and Israel by that) has basically been waiting to happen, but I figured it'd be Israel and Iran to kick off the rumble (either Iran carrying out their threat to wipe Israel off the face of the earth, but there's no reason to believe they meant that since they lie about everything else, nor is there any reason to be concerned about the fact that "you won't let us into some areas in your palace, Kim Jong-Il" or w/e the line in Team America was... OR Israel pre-emptively striking Iran after numerous threats)

Well, whatever. I wish I knew why Tony Blair is being so damn unassertive. Were I the Prime Minister, it'd be a simple "Lie to your own people all you like, but you've got a day to return all fifteen to us safe and sound, otherwise you and I are gonna fall out."
