in canada its called defence of a dwelling which stats I have permission to use "reasonable" force, that "reasonable" is in question. Don't worry, im a avid hunter, anyone of my dads scopies should do the trick. btw, this guy is so full of shit, he cant even afford the tank of gas it would take to drive here so I hope he enjoys hitchhiking? this guy is by far the biggest fucktard ive seen in a while, takes the cake from tanner, ALTHOUGH, this is also 1 of the funniest topics ive ever re-read
