Subject: do you think everyone should teamwork on renegade

I usually check to see if anyones co-operating in a server, but I won't waste more than a minute of my limited play time begging someone to help me. I'll just go in Rambo and do quite well for myself. Most of the time I win the game single handedly, or take out the PP or something so the n00bs will all rush in finish em' off.

Teamwork is great, but being a one man army taking out a base full of newbs with a pistol after C4ing the PP and beaconing the Ref as a hotwire in one run is a helluva rush.
