Bah, Wilost0rm hardly is on and when he is he acts like the Level Edit guru and no one is better than him. Last time I asked him some questions he wasn't very helpful (like all the past times) and he and another guy were like messing around (queers), lol.

I'll ask zunnie for help but at this point I'm guessing I need someone good with C++ or does those .txt files like zunnie's.
