SSnipe, you're just downright dumb. You're saying that Vash was the one who said Yonnie cheated... Uhhh, no. It was actually me. You're just going off of what other mods there tell you so you can keep your mod position at XpZ.

I actually caught Yonegga cheating a long, long time ago using Evan's BHB(big head box). Having played at XpZ a lot, I had a couple of friends who were mods, so I had one(AnThRaX) of them ask Yonegga about it and post it in the mod forums to prove he was cheating. I even made a video about it.

Once Yonnie read the topic, he deleted it, and banned both me and AnThRaX. So we made new accounts on the forums and posted another topic in the general section, and got everyone to read it by giving them the link in IRC. Then Yonnie, once again, deleted the topic and banned us from the forums again.

After that, we both went to VashTS because he would actually look at the proof and he did. He watched the video that I made and the SS's that I gave him(that Yonnie took btw) that proved that Yonnie cheated. He made a topic on the forums, and everyone read it and posted. Even the other admins at the time posted that they knew he had been cheating for years. Most of them decided that they were tired of his bullshit and left the community. Yeah, that's the real reason why Matty and Vash left XpZ.
