Renguard doesn't like that, they'll fix it shortly, until then, if you use nick YYY when Renguard verified nick XXX, then you need to restart Renegade and Renguard after you've logged into XWIS. Sorry.

Reading his last post indicates that this is not the case.

This is related to that disconnect problem that everyone has been complaining about recently. Don't worry, they're working on it. They even have released a new build for the server bots to work against this problem. Sorry, but there is no quick-fix.
