He is the one dude out of this whole forum, past and present I really would like to see go (including AirCraftKiller).

And lol at "It is my full intention to release the source code to renguard", what a total nub. I guess that would be where his super l337 coding skills come into play that we have all seen so much of. Oh wait, coding has nothing to do with getting the source code.. Must be my mistake, fl00d3d would know better.

Even though I know he can't do what he said, because he has the same IQ as my pet goldfish (after rg killed it), it kinda proves how much he loves this game and his love of the community, "i'm just looking out for the little guy :blush:" - What a load of BS.

OWNED.

QFT, I wouldnt mind to see him perm banned either.

Perhaps make a poll about it in the serverowners section? Or just here, but I think the most annoyed ppl don't come here.
