Hahahaha so you took the video I posted of a cheater and tried to use it against me? Firstly, did you have my permission to use my video? Secondly, I never said that I DIDN'T use what some people call advantage skins. Its not cheating, I could change the stank colour to bright pink and I still would NOT be able to see that stank any further away. You know why? Because the skin doesn't change the distance variable thats hard coded into the objects.dbb or whatever file its under. If it was cheating that RenGuard will block it full stop. Not have an option to block all skins. You still haven't provided a VIDEO of me CHEATING. You know when people kill tanks with one shot or have big head, etc...
