I'd have just tootled off to  and be done with it. But she keeps trying to provoke replies.

Just like every other thread, she's kept it open for discussion. I am not so sure it's to 'provoke' replies.

Either way, we all know that this whole thing will die down. The forum will lose a few members here and there (but those upset enough really aren't big contributors to the community), but renforums will continue just like it did after the last 'revolt'.

Bottom line is, we all know that there is room for improvement on these forums. Anybody rational will have some things they agree and disagree on how things are done. When it comes down to it, do the cons outweigh the pros? I don't think so.
