Carry on Crimson, show the rest of this forum what you are really like.

Hopefully most of them will join  where they don't need to feel suppressed.

Wow, I missed a lot.

Heh, if THIS is what shows the world what Crimson is really like, then I say "Good job Crimson!".

There is no reason someone should be forced to link to anything that goes against the forum owner. I highly doubt Westwood, or even FI00d3d would allow it themselves.
