This is the exact reason why I don't try to do some good shit and make a name for myself in the community. Then you have to live up to the name (can be hard) and anything negative that happens only screws your reputation. And then you have to defend it...and it turns ugly.

In the end, you fall into the own hole you dug. I am not telling anyone to lay low but don't outdo your capabilities.

PS: This especially when you try to claim that you are the best player in Renegade...there are many players out there that are good. But unfortunately, we will never be able to test the skills of the elite vs other elites. So we must live with the possibility that out there, there may be someone better.
