I just wanted to know what yall think the new super smash brothers is going to be like. I think it's going to be the best game Wii will have. Every time I look at the website I get more excited. Do you guys think its gonna be really good, or do you think its gonna suck? What character do you want to use? etc. If you don't know already the SSBB website updates every weekday. Cehck it out at www.smashbros.com
