OK...so I go on WOL today morning and click on the Jelly-Server-new maps server.

There was no one else so the "Gameplay Pending" thing was there. I waited roughly a minute and then, frustrated that no one is coming, I typed this into All Chat:

"Come on bitches...come out and play"

AND BOOM! I get kicked and the fucking small screen that says "the gamehost evicted you" comes up. I was like WTF?

Now, I can't get into that server. TBH, I never liked the Jelly-Servers. It is run by powerhungry 12 year olds.

But it was the new maps server...I love the new maps and this was a good stable server for the new maps. Damn now I am angry.

What stupidity...getting banned for saying a simple curseword.

Does anyone know how long this ban is gonna be? Is it a temp-ban? Is there any other good server that has the new maps out there?
