Hiya Dreganius.

Nice to meet an other 40k fan here on the forums.

I been playing Warhammer 40,000 for about 13-15 years now, so been playing a long time, I used to work for Games Workshop in my local store few years ago.

Its really nice that someone would like to do a 40k mod for Renegade, I might even go so far one day to even try to skin some models when I learn how too.

If you need to know anything about 40k, then am the guy to ask, I pretty much know everything about everything to do with 40k.

Am pretty busy latey, but whenever you need any level editor map work, then am happy to help.

And yes my name is from 40k.
