I don't believe I have ever used these forums to unfairly promote my own community. If I mention it, it's in the same context as anyone else could mention their own site/community. It was very important to me and everyone from the start that these forums are NOT related except that they are both led by the same person. There is also very little staff crossover.

To be honest, I firmly believe that without a00, this game would actually be a lot less played and popular.
