Who Fucking Cares

I am afraid that I have to agree with this user, who cares!, This argument has gone on long enough, Erik knows he did wrong during the fun war and I believe he is genuinely sorry for what he did but what's done is done and cannot be changed, so lets all just move on and get back to enjoying the game like adults instead of acting like a bunch of school children arguing in the school playground!.

I am not going to say any more on this matter and just get on with playing the game, if there are those who want to continue to argue then that is their choice, but personally I cannot see the point in it, arguing will not change the past, so get over it!.
