i am just a well known, old skool, descent player..

gohan could u pls lift the ban?.. its so unfair Don't play his server. Everything was stolen from kamuix's server.

Play at a0000001. Kamuix's C&C Mode. It's everything compared to wittebolx's server, and kam actually had to work hard on his server.

and i didnt work hard on it?? i just waited for the Lua Plugin for SSGM, ok kam was the first. but why must he be the only one?? its good competition and btw let the players choose, me and daniel made the modifications to the server, so whats the problem with that? kams using direct script.dll edit and i use SSGM. (BiG Difference) and about player K4l3l.

just register oon the forum at www.wittebolx.com and leave your complaint in the Banned Section, Dagohan will have a look at it.

Dude, you did not only steal the build commands, you stole the 10 sec beacons, the buy commands, practically everything is identical.

I mean, literally, can't you think of your own ideas?
