My online name (for everything!) is Starbuzz.

It all happened with the remake of Battlestar Galactica back in 2003. I instantly liked the super-ace Viper pilot Kara Thrace...her callsign was Starbuck.

I really liked that callsign but was not satisfied with the "buck" part. So, I kept thinking very hard of an alternative until "buzz" came into my mind. And I thought "Starbuzz" sounded pretty terrific! The name stuck for good.

"BuzzOfTheStar" is just the name I registered here with and as you can see, it's a rip-off from "Starbuzz."
