I was in a rock band a few years back, and we had a tradition of sorts whereby if one of us did something really stupid, he would be given the Spoon Award, and be obliged to carry a wooden spoon on his person at all times. It could be relieved by performing something exceptional.

I was the first recipient of the Spoon Award.

My first name on Renegade wasn't anything spoon-related, but when I joined TDRP (Jelly's clan, the Dancin Rat Pack - whose members had 'rat' at the end of their names) I took the name Spoonyrat, and later simply Spoony.
