I'm not really sure how I got to this nickname.

I first thought up ThaKiller, which I found to be lame a while later, so I decided to change it. I couldn't com up with somethign cool till I saw something on TV (a cartoon I guess) or on a picture. It was a white dragon, now since I wanted a new nickname, I thought lets take that one. Sometime soon after that, I looked it up at google (idk why though ) and I noticed that there where an awful lot of whitedragons, so I decided it would need to change once more. Because I was called evil at the time by StealthEye, I decided to call myself EvilWhiteDragon.
