First name of me was 'Dutch Revan' (not rilly, but i had like those usual names at ra2) anyway, i chose for it cause i played SW:KOTOR (1) that time, and i liked Darth Revan (main evil char in that game). I didnt liked copying a existing 'game' name, so i chose of what i am --> Dutch, so Dutch Revan.

After some months, i was addicted to Need For speed Underground, and i always took neon bars under my car. At that time i thought Neon would be more cooler, so i changed Revan to Neon.

Further more i got lots of Ren accs (Not on Wol, but GSA and ASE based) and other games where i got names related to German Tank names, cause im a fan of German tanks in WW2 (no, im not a nazi, but imo german tanks looked very cool, so i took names, same for there airplanes which had awesome looks too(Example is SdKfz171Panther and some other Fully names like Pzkpfw6Panther etc).

Last name: ToxicRevolved, dunno why, there was something on the news about Toxic disaster and i was reading something about revolution, but i changed to Revolved (this isnt a ren acc though)
