Yeah, me too. In my county(Thurston County, WA, USA), they recently banned smoking in ALL establishments. No smoking in bars(as we call it in the US), stores, restaurants, community centres(I like spelling it that way... >_>), anything. You have to go 25 feet away from it, which as a non-smoker(I'm 15 for christs sake!), like. The poll for this was a LANDSLIDE, there was no chance that it would have a year 2000 type election(which sucked... got us in 2 wars...). So no one really cared that it was passed, there's hardly that many smokers in my area any way .
