I know you get SO ANGRY AT LOSING a computer game that you practically suffer a nervous breakdown and you have to cheat in response just to sleep at night... that alone proves you're a sad, pathetic little geek. I don't CARE what else you do in your free time, because that proves you're a loser, and so does the fact you get so angry and so defensive at the truth of it being spoken to you - clearly, it cuts you all the way to the bone.

Here's what else proves you're a loser: you're DESPERATE for people on the other side of the internet to think you have a life. Yes, that's right, desperate. You remind me of C4packer - when he was caught cheating he did exactly the same.

What have I done to make you so furious, I wonder? Call you a loser? Big deal, don't cheat and I wouldn't have said anything... every cheater seems to retreat into a defensive shell whenever someone calls them a geek for cheating, join the ranks.

Go get angry over a computer game some more, geek. (that's your cue) It really is hilarious watching you snap.
