ROFL, wow I printed that out.

Dear Mr. Hamilton Mayor, (aka mr.anigaylover on diff nick),

I can not belive you answer the phone to a guy who said, "help me there calling us po0r!", registered on these forums and etc just to say that. Well, im sorry to inform you, you are dead wrong. On a family vacation to TO, we rolled thro your shithole of a city, and due to the fact of the deep SMOG and pollutants in the air, my you younger brother has developed a cough due to his sinus infection. Im glad you like my city, because we are the people that give you your income. And if you really have enough time to post that on a gaming forum, I see why you people are so poor.

p.s: just imagine what he had to do, that cheeky guy, called the major office, explained what I said to him, and told him how i was giving his city a bad image, ROFFFLMAO
