Fucking ageist. How would you know that I'm 12? I've mentioned it in my website, but how would you know that that happened in recent times? My web is pretty old and I have not updated in quite awhile. But yea, don't be ageist, it's just as bad as being a racist. People just don't realise it.

And ask anyone. I'm pretty much smarter than you. Judging by your greatly idiotic posts, you don't look much older than me. I doubt your even older than 10.

and tbh, it's pretty sad that people are on a accused cheater's side against you.
