1:You are forced to make a XBOX live account = FAIL

You can use the "free XBOX Live" but you can not save your online or really compete unless you pay for it.

2:The camera is way to close to the ground.

3:There is absolutely NO SINGLE PLAYER ANYTHING! They send you straight online so you can get butt fucked in the first 5 minutes before you even figure out what building the power plant is.

I don't want to talk about it anymore.

There are all things that usually result from it being a BETA TEST. I don't think they're going to scrap the singleplayer completely for the full game, you're just ecstatic about using a half-finished version.
