I have seen on multiple servers they somehow are playing the M00 mission maps, i have long since wondered how to acquire and use em as they did...i feel i could learn a great deal about levelEDIT by looking at these and playing with them...just as i have done with all other Worldbuilders on other games!

The best way to learn is to observe other peoples jenious i find in the Mapmaking/editing world, so please any and all suggestions of how to get the maps would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks 4 reading this
