I remember the first windows 3.1 commercial, it was like 10 minutes long and showed specially for those football and sports games, rather than showing 4 different commercials, they showed 1 big one.

"You cant be using the newest mac software, it isnt released from beta yet, if the boss finds out, you'll be fired!"

"it isnt the newest mac, it's windows 3.1!"

"windows 3.1? whats that?!"

"it's better than the newer mac software, it can handle multiple tasks, multiple windows, why i can be typing up a report then play a game!"

"Wow!"
