DeafwaspDo not mention Ack in a post or a thread unless is something positive or a question, or you will get big trouble.

Do not post stuff about how great your crappity crap is unless it is finished, original and done with skill, preveiwis are ok but do not hype it up.

Do some homework before you say stupid shit about shit you dont know about.

look around yourself before you ask for help.

Do not post threads like this or "state of the forums" threads.

these are just a few ways to not get flamed the fuck up by Ack and the other Elite peeps.

Call me a suck up, a brown noser or flame me because you dont like me or what I say. I dont care.

finally, someone said what i have been thinking for the past few days. (yes, i m too lazy to post this stuff.)
