You notice the difference between the Abrams and that model of yours?

The Abrams has detail. Your model does not.

Give it detail. Give it a better model. Do that tank some justice. I love the Abrams, but not that model...

Please Ack, I really don't mind you viocing your opinion, but please don't insult it. Give us some helpful tips. You can say it looks bad, but please not in such an insulting way. Do you think the model needs work? Or just the skin? Or both? If so, what type of details can we add?

Quote:Here's a different picture of the tank. Try skining it this way. Using the desert camo skin like you are just makes it look bland and ugly.

That really doesn't have a desert camo skin, but when I get back, I'll just re-skin the whole fuckin thing.....

he will feel good about his nasty deeds. How can he be proud of himself when no one else is?

Narcissists use everyone around them to keep themselves inflated. Often they find flaws in others and criticize them fiercely, for this further distinguishes them from those who are defective. Because of their underlying need for voice and the resultant bluster, Narcissists often work their way to the center of their "circle," or the top of their organization. Indeed, they may be the mentor or guru for others. The second they are snubbed, however, they rage at their "enemy." Demands to be recognized as superior without commensurate achievements. Requires excessive admiration, adulation, attention and affirmation - or, failing that, wishes to be feared and to be notorious.

American Psychiatric Association. (1994).

Ack enters into a room, most people leave; Ack follows them around insulting them, wondering

Woo is me.
