A bit yes, btw when asking a question with a (?) don't put a period in front of it, the dot thing.

Btw again, english wasnt really my first language either, I knew Taiwanese when I was a kid just because my mother spoke in both English and taiwanese perfectly, but when I got older my dad always spoke in English, and school and all helped perfect my English. No i dont have a accent, but I do have a western Taiwanese accent according to mainlanders.
