- 1.All i do is get a couple of people in APCs.
- 2.We go into their base, away from the action. Get next to the wall.
- 3.Cover your self with the acp (your teammates should too).
- 4.Place beacon.
- 5.Get back in, and cover it. if u r successful, the building should be history.

If u follow these steps. I bet the base will be destroyed very easily.

P.S. You dont have to be pro to pull this off, just a good shooter. (But I do reccemend that if you are less experienced that you go with go with a few other teammates.) Make sure you are a solier of any sort , and not a engenier just in case your APC blows up.)

Yeah this tatic has been out for some time now.
