Renegera wrote on Thu, 04 October 2007 21:22 Here's a few questions to piss you off while your doing something-

Why is there a god?

Who made god?

God is what?

How old is god?

What was before god?

What started God?

Have fun.

Intelligent answers only please.

If you read the bible, you will find all this out in heaven. It says that your mind can't comprehend it right now on earth, but it will all be explained in the afterlife.
