Xylaquin wrote on Wed, 03 October 2007 03:10 shouldn't they atleast wait untill C&C3's expansion(s) come out before even considering doing this. The fact that they're making a saga edition suggests that they're finishing the series by boxing everything (although I know their not)

Silly EA.

Agreed 100%

Also they just keep selling those packs and making it more and more of a pain on the renegade communities ass. We are going to have to have a Saga registry tutorial and all the rest of that crap.
