ok back on topic

flame him for that Nukeit

as for the internet, i prefer typed because you can meet some very friendly people on here (not that way) that would probably make fun of you in real life. (hint hint, Muad gets flamed in real life for the way he (I) talk) for real life, i prefer phones, because face to face gets a little to personal after a while. Which is why I can't stand looonng conversations.
